Statute of the Saudi Organization for Chartered and Professional Accountants

Article 1

In this Statute, the following words and phrases shall have the meanings assigned thereto, unless the context requires otherwise:

Organization: Saudi Organization for Chartered and Professional Accountants.

Statute: Statute of the Organization.

Ministry: Ministry of Commerce.

Minister: Minister of Commerce.

General Assembly: General Assembly of the Organization.

Board: Board of Directors of the Organization.

Chairman: Chairman of the Board.

Profession: The profession of accounting and auditing.

Chartered Accountant: A natural or legal person licensed to practice the profession.

Professional Registration: A program approved by the Board for registering accounting and auditing professionals.

Professional Certificates: The fellowship certificate and other professional certificates awarded to applicants in accordance with rules approved by the Board.

Article 2

The Organization shall have a legal personality and financial and administrative independence and shall operate under the Ministry's supervision. Its headquarters shall be in the city of Riyadh, and it may establish branches and offices within the Kingdom, as needed.

Article 3

The Organization aims to improve the practice of the profession, raise awareness thereof, monitor the quality of its services, and promote its contribution to the national economy and the community. To this end, it may:

1. set policies and strategies and propose laws and regulations relevant to the profession, as determined by the Board;
2. review, develop, and approve accounting and auditing standards and any other relevant standards;
3. organize the tests necessary for obtaining professional certificates;
4. establish specialized institutes to hold seminars, develop and organize training courses and tests, and issue and translate periodicals, books, and publications relevant to the profession;
5. monitor the quality of services rendered;
6. participate in local and international seminars, conferences, and committees relevant to the profession;
7. regulate and monitor the profession and its sub-fields; and
8. provide consultation on profession-related matters.

Article 4

1. Membership in the Organization shall include the following:
 - a) Full membership which includes members who have obtained the Organization's fellowship certificate.
 - b) Associate membership which includes members who:
 - i. hold a college degree or a diploma in accounting; or
 - ii. are professionals registered in the professional registration program.
 - c) Professional membership which includes members other than chartered accountants who are licensed to provide any of the following:
 - i. Accounting services.
 - ii. Zakat and tax accounting services.
 - d) Honorary membership which is granted by the Board to persons who have made outstanding contributions to the profession.
 - e) Student membership which includes students enrolled in universities and colleges who are registered with the Organization.
2. The Board shall issue the membership controls, including controls for the granting, suspension, and revocation of membership.

Article 5

1. The Organization shall have a general assembly comprising all full members who have paid their annual membership subscription fees.
2. The General Assembly shall hold an ordinary meeting at least once a year upon a call by the Board. The date of such meeting shall be set at the beginning of the Organization's fiscal year. The General Assembly may, however, hold an extraordinary meeting if requested by 20%, or more, of its full members or five, or more, Board members. The Board shall prepare the agenda of the General Assembly meeting, set the meeting date and venue, and announce the same at least 10 days prior to the meeting date.
3. General Assembly meetings shall be chaired by the Chairman or his designee. Meetings of the General Assembly, whether ordinary or extraordinary, shall be deemed valid if attended by the majority of its members; if, however, the quorum is not present, a call shall be sent for another meeting to be held within 30 days following the date of the first meeting, and such meeting shall be deemed valid even if the quorum is not present. General Assembly decisions shall be passed by the majority vote of attending members; in case of a tie, the chairman of the meeting shall have the casting vote.
4. The General Assembly may hold meetings and vote on decisions electronically.

Article 6

The General Assembly shall:

1. approve the Organization's annual financial statements;
2. approve the investment policy of the Organization's funds;
3. appoint the Organization's auditors and determine their fees;
4. approve the Organization's annual report;
5. elect Saudi full members to the Board;
6. approve the election procedures and eligibility criteria for Board candidates; and
7. discuss all items on the agenda.

Article 7

1. The Organization shall have a board of directors chaired by the Minister, or his designee, and comprising the following members:
 - a) A representative from the Ministry of Commerce.
 - b) A representative from the Ministry of Human Resources and Social Development.
 - c) A representative from the Ministry of Finance.
 - d) A representative from the General Court of Audit.
 - e) A representative from the Capital Market Authority.
 - f) A specialist from the private sector nominated by the Council of Saudi Chambers of Commerce and Industry.
 - g) Three of the Organization's full members elected by the General Assembly for a term of three years, renewable once.
 - h) A Saudi faculty member from an accounting department at a Saudi university nominated by the Minister of Education.
 - i) The CEO of the Organization.
2. The representatives provided for in paragraph (1)(a, b, c, d, and e) of this Article shall be of a rank not lower than grade "Fourteen", or its equivalent, and must have relevant experience.
3. The membership term of the members referred to in paragraph (1)(f and h) of this Article shall be three years, renewable once.

Article 8

1. The Board shall convene upon a call by its Chairman at least twice a year, and if requested in writing by at least four Board members.
2. Meetings of the Board shall not be deemed valid unless attended by the majority of its members, including the Chairman or his designee. Board meetings may be held electronically at the Chairman's discretion.
3. Board decisions shall be passed by the majority vote of attending members; in case of a tie, the chairman of the meeting shall have the casting vote.
4. A Board decision may, when necessary, be passed by circulation if approved by all members in writing. Any decision passed by circulation shall be presented to the Board at the first subsequent meeting and recorded in the meeting minutes.

Article 9

The Board shall oversee the management of the Organization and the conduct of its affairs, and shall take the decisions necessary to achieve the Organization's aims within the limits of this Statute. In particular, the Board shall have the following powers:

1. Forming professional boards and committees and approving their regulations and work rules and procedures, including the accounting standards board, audit standards board, professional performance quality control board, examination committee, and professional ethics committee.
2. Developing and approving accounting standards and auditing standards as well as other relevant professional standards.
3. Granting honorary membership.
4. Calling for General Assembly meetings.
5. Approving profession-related policies and strategies as well as the plans and programs necessary for their implementation, and submitting any matter requiring completion of statutory procedures.
6. Passing decisions and setting rules related to the profession and to the Organization's jurisdiction.
7. Approving the Organization's financial and administrative regulations as well as any other internal regulations necessary for the management of the Organization.
8. Determining the fees for membership subscriptions and professional registration and for the services and works provided by the Organization as well as the method of payment thereof, within its jurisdiction.
9. Setting the requirements for obtaining the Organization's fellowship certificate as well as professional certificates in any of the profession's sub-fields.
10. Developing and organizing training courses and continuing professional education programs.
11. Investing the Organization's funds, including investments in real estate through ownership and leasing, financial instruments, and other investments.
12. Appointing the Organization's CEO, and determining his duties, rights, and responsibilities as well as his remuneration and other employment and financial benefits.
13. Approving the Organization's organizational structure.
14. Proposing amendments to laws and regulations relating to the Organization's jurisdiction or to the profession, and submitting the same to the Ministry in preparation for completion of statutory procedures.
15. Approving the establishment of branches and offices for the Organization.
16. Approving the Organization's draft budget and annual plan.
17. Preparing the Organization's financial statements and annual report.
18. Accepting gifts, donations, grants, bequests, and endowments in accordance with relevant provisions.
19. Reviewing periodic progress reports on the Organization's activities.

The Board may delegate certain powers to its Chairman or any of its members or to the professional boards and committees.

Article 10

The Organization's resources shall consist of the following:

1. Annual government allocations.
2. Financial support provided by the Capital Market Authority and the General Authority of Zakat and Tax for any development programs.
3. Gifts, donations, grants, bequests, and endowment proceeds accepted by the Board.
4. Returns on investments.
5. Fees for services and works.
6. Annual membership subscription fees.

Article 11

The Organization may open accounts with banks licensed to operate in the Kingdom. Disbursement from such accounts shall be in accordance with its financial regulations.

Article 12

The General Assembly shall, upon a recommendation by the Board, appoint an external auditor, or more, from among the auditors licensed to practice the profession in the Kingdom, provided that such auditor, or any of his partners, is not a member of the Board or a member of any of the Organization's professional boards and committees. The General Assembly shall also determine the fees of the auditor. The auditor shall audit the Organization's accounts, transactions, statements, annual budget, and final accounts. The auditor's report shall be submitted to the General Assembly.

Article 13

The Organization's fiscal year shall commence on January 1 and end on December 31.

Article 14

This Statute shall be published in the Official Gazette, and shall enter into force 90 days following the date of its publication.
