With the help of Allah Almighty,
We, Salman bin Abdulaziz Al Saud,
King of the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia,

Based on Article 70 of the Basic Law of Governance, promulgated by Royal Order No. A/90, dated 27/8/1412H;

Based on Article 20 of the Law of the Council of Ministers, promulgated by Royal Order No. A/13, dated 3/3/1414H;

Based on Article 18 of the Shura Council Law, promulgated by Royal Order No. A/91, dated 27/8/1412H;

Upon perusal of Shura Council Resolution No. 105/9, dated 19/5/1447H; and

Upon perusal of Council of Ministers Resolution No. 746, dated 26/10/1447H;

Have decreed as follows:

First:

The Enforcement Law, attached herewith, shall be approved.

Second:

All judgments, orders, and decisions issued prior to the entry into force of the Enforcement Law referred to in Clause (First) of this Decree shall remain valid in accordance with the provisions applicable before its entry into force.

Third:

The provisions of the Enforcement Law referred to in Clause (First) of this Decree shall not apply to the enforcement disputes in which final judgments were rendered prior to its entry into force.

Fourth:

Enforcement courts shall enforce the decisions or orders issued by quasi-judicial committees in accordance with the Enforcement Law referred to in Clause (First) of this Decree.

Fifth:

Notwithstanding the provisions of the Enforcement Law referred to in Clause (First) of this Decree, bills of exchange and promissory notes issued prior to its entry into force and satisfying all legal requirements except registration in the national electronic platforms shall be deemed enforcement documents for a period of one year from the entry into force of said Law.

Sixth:

The provisions governing provisional attachment set forth in the articles of Part 2 of the Enforcement Law promulgated by Royal Decree No. M/53, dated 13/8/1433H, shall remain in force until completion of the procedures for transferring such provisions to the Law of Civil Procedure promulgated by Royal Decree No. M/1, dated 22/1/1435H. The Minister of Justice shall take such measures as necessary regarding the continuation and amendment of the provisional attachment provisions referred to in this Clause in the Implementing Regulations of the Enforcement Law promulgated by Royal Decree No. M/53.

Seventh:

The insolvency provisions set forth in the articles of Chapter 1 of Part 5 of the Enforcement Law promulgated by Royal Decree No. M/53, dated 13/8/1433H, shall remain in force until completion of the procedures for issuance and implementation of the legislation governing civil insolvency in accordance with applicable statutory procedures. Enforcement courts shall have jurisdiction to consider insolvency lawsuits, and judgments rendered therein shall be subject to appeal; appellate judgments shall not be subject to appeal by way of cassation. The Minister of Justice shall take such measures as necessary regarding the continuation and amendment of the insolvency provisions referred to in this Clause in the Implementing Regulations of the Enforcement Law promulgated by Royal Decree No. M/53.

Eighth:

Clause (Third) of Royal Decree No. M/15, dated 27/1/1443H, shall be amended to read as follows: “The enforcement circuits established pursuant to the Law referred to in Clause (First) of this Decree shall execute the decisions or orders issued by exempt quasi-judicial committees in which the administrative agency is a party.”

Ninth:

The application of the Enforcement Law referred to in Clause (First) of this Decree shall not prejudice continued implementation of the following:

1. Royal Decree No. M/158, dated 11/11/1441H, insofar as it exempts military personnel actively participating in war or military operations from travel bans and imprisonment.
2. Clause (Second) of Royal Order No. 69377, dated 7/11/1443H.

Tenth:

His Royal Highness the Prime Minister, the ministers, and the heads of relevant independent agencies shall, each within his jurisdiction, implement this Decree.

Signed

Salman bin Abdulaziz Al Saud

Enforcement Law

Part 1: General Provisions

Article 1

In this Law, the following words and phrases shall have the meanings assigned thereto, unless the context requires otherwise:

Law: Enforcement Law.

Regulations: Implementing Regulations of the Law.

Council: Supreme Judicial Council.

Ministry: Ministry of Justice.

Minister: Minister of Justice.

Court: Enforcement Court.

Competent Department: The administrative unit within the Ministry or the court entrusted with carrying out any of the enforcement proceedings in accordance with this Law and the Regulations.

Competent Authority: The public entity in charge of enforcement-related activities.

Authority in Charge of Property Oversight or Registration: The public entity in charge of overseeing a particular type of property, whether movable or immovable, or registering ownership thereof, including the public entity in charge of overseeing financial institutions and the public entity in charge of overseeing the Capital Market.

Competent Force: The police or the security agency in charge of assisting enforcement by using force.

Direct Enforcement: Execution of an enforcement document the subject of which is an act or omission of an act.

Enforcement Expenses: Financial obligations arising from enforcement proceedings, subject to applicable provisions.

Article 2

1. The court shall consist of both first-instance circuits and appellate circuits or of first-instance circuits only.
2. Appeals of judgments issued by first-instance circuits in a court with no appellate circuits shall be considered by the appellate circuits of a court designated by the Council.

Article 3

All competent authorities, including authorities in charge of property oversight or registration, must comply with court orders and decisions relating to enforcement and its proceedings within a period not exceeding three business days from the date of notification, unless otherwise provided for in this Law.

Part 2: Jurisdiction

Article 4

1. Except for execution of criminal penalties and matters subject to the jurisdiction of the courts of the Board of Grievances, the court shall oversee enforcement and its proceedings, including compulsory enforcement, and shall decide on enforcement disputes and issue judgments, orders, and decisions relating to enforcement.
2. Subject to the provisions of Article 9 of this Law, the court shall verify that the enforcement document satisfies legal requirements without considering the merits of the claim.
3. Referral of enforcement petitions shall be in accordance with the rules set forth in the Regulations.

Article 5

If multiple garnishment orders against the assets of a party subject to enforcement are issued by multiple authorities, the garnishee must notify the authority issuing the later order of the earlier order. The Regulations shall specify the provisions necessary for the implementation of this Article.

Article 6

1. Notwithstanding the provisions relating to jurisdiction provided for in this Law, the Law of Enforcement by the Board of Grievances, and other relevant laws, if attachment of assets of a party subject to enforcement is imposed by two judicial bodies, by a judicial body and an administrative body, or by two judicial bodies and an administrative body, attachment of all such assets shall be deemed made for all enforcement petitions. The judicial body issuing the first attachment order shall oversee the attachments arising from such petitions; the sale of assets; the distribution of proceeds; and the issuance of judgments, orders, and decisions pertaining thereto, in accordance with the enforcement law applicable to such body.
2. The Minister shall, in coordination with the Council and the Administrative Judicial Council, issue rules specifying the provisions and procedures necessary for the implementation of this Article.

Part 3: Enforcement Document

Article 7

1. Compulsory enforcement may not be executed without an enforcement document, which shall be for a defined and due right. Without prejudice to enforcement documents subject to the Law of Enforcement by the Board of Grievances, enforcement documents subject to this Law shall include the following:
 - a) Final judgments, orders, and decisions, as well as judgments subject to expedited enforcement, issued by courts of the Kingdom.
 - b) Arbitral awards issued in accordance with relevant statutory provisions.
 - c) Settlement agreements and reconciliation documents notarized in accordance with the Notarization Law or issued by legally authorized entities.
 - d) Bills of exchange and promissory notes recorded in national electronic platforms. The Regulations shall provide for the conditions, controls, and procedures for recording bills of exchange and promissory notes in such platforms.
 - e) Checks.
 - f) Contracts and declarations notarized in accordance with the Notarization Law.
 - g) Judgments and judicial orders, arbitral awards, settlement agreements, and attested documents issued by a foreign state in accordance with Article 9 of this Law.
 - h) Contracts and documents that bear the same legal effect of enforcement documents pursuant to a law or resolution issued by the Council of Ministers.
2. The Regulations shall specify the procedures necessary for the implementation of this Article.

Article 8

If the right underlying the enforcement documents provided for in Article 7(1)(c, f, and h) of this Law is contingent upon the performance of an obligation the satisfaction of which cannot be verified from the document itself, the holder of the right may file a petition with the court for enforcement, accompanied by a report from an expert entity accredited by the Ministry confirming performance of such obligation. The Regulations shall specify the provisions and procedures necessary for the implementation of this Article.

Article 9

1. Subject to the Kingdom's obligations under international treaties and conventions, a court may not enforce a foreign judgment or order except on the basis of reciprocity and upon verifying satisfaction of the following conditions:
 - a) The case in which the foreign judgment or order is rendered is not subject to the exclusive jurisdiction of a judicial body in the Kingdom.
 - b) No pending lawsuit in the Kingdom is filed prior to the filing of a lawsuit with the same subject matter in which a foreign judgment or order is rendered.
 - c) The litigants in the case in which a judgment was rendered were summoned, duly represented, and afforded the opportunity to defend themselves.
 - d) The foreign judgment or order is deemed final according to the regulations governing the competent judicial body issuing the judgment or order.
 - e) The foreign judgment or order does not conflict with a prior judgment or order rendered on the same subject matter by a competent judicial body in the Kingdom.
 - f) The judgment or order does not conflict with public policy in the Kingdom.
2. Arbitral awards issued and settlement agreements concluded in a foreign state shall be enforceable in accordance with the Kingdom's obligations under international treaties and conventions, and upon verifying fulfillment of the conditions provided for in paragraph (1) of this Article.
3. Attested documents issued in a foreign state shall be enforceable upon verifying the fulfillment of the conditions prescribed by the laws of such state, and on the basis of reciprocity between the Kingdom and such state with respect to the conditions for enforcement of such documents.

Article 10

If a creditor refuses to receive payment of a due debt established by an enforcement document, the debtor may file a petition with the court to compel the creditor to receive the payment; in such case, the court shall order the creditor to receive such payment, and, if receipt of the payment is not possible, the court shall establish the same and take the necessary measures to enable the debtor to discharge his obligation, in accordance with the Regulations. In all cases, costs arising from the implementation of this Article, if any, shall be deemed enforcement expenses.

Article 11

Without prejudice to relevant statutory provisions, a petition for enforcement filed pursuant to an enforcement document may not be accepted upon the lapse of more than 10 years from the due date of the right underlying such document.

Part 4: Enforcement Proceedings

Chapter 1: Registration of Enforcement Petitions and Issuance of Writs of Execution

Article 12

The Regulations shall specify the cases in which the creditor must notify the debtor to satisfy the debt subject of the enforcement document prior to the filing of the enforcement petition.

Article 13

1. The competent department shall register the enforcement petition upon verifying that the conditions provided for in this Law and the Regulations are satisfied, in accordance with the procedures and forms specified by the Ministry.
2. If the competent department decides not to register an enforcement petition for failure to satisfy the conditions referred to in paragraph (1) of this Article, the petitioner must remedy deficiencies within 10 business days from the date of notification; if the petitioner fails to do so, the petition shall be deemed rejected.
3. If registration of a petition is rejected, the petitioner shall have the right to file a grievance within 10 business days from the date of rejection, in accordance with Article 46 of this Law.

Article 14

If an enforcement document satisfies legal requirements, the court shall order the party subject to enforcement to satisfy the obligation therein, and the writ of execution shall be served to said party upon issuance thereof; if service of the writ is not feasible, it shall be published through appropriate means, and the service shall take effect from the date of such publication. The Regulations shall specify the provisions necessary for the implementation of this Article.

Chapter 2: Disclosure of Assets

Article 15

1. The party subject to enforcement must disclose his assets from the date of service or publication of the writ of execution in accordance with Article 14 of this Law.
2. If petitioned by the party seeking enforcement and if presumptions exist that the party subject to enforcement has concealed or fraudulently transferred assets, the court shall order disclosure from the following:
 - a) Agents of the party subject to enforcement and persons with whom he has a contractual relationship of employment.
 - b) Persons who have financial dealings with the party subject to enforcement, his debtors, and persons suspected of aiding him.
 - c) Garnishees.

This shall be limited to the extent necessary to achieve the purpose of the disclosure. The person required to disclose must comply within a period not exceeding 10 business days from the date of service by the means specified in the Regulations.

3. The authority in charge of property oversight or registration shall, pursuant to a court order, provide the court with any information in its possession within a period not exceeding three business days from the date of notification.

Article 16

The authority in charge of property oversight or registration or the entities under its supervision pursuant to relevant statutory provisions shall, as the case may be, undertake any of the following:

1. establish or designate a department, or more, to be entrusted with processing orders and decisions relating to enforcement;
2. establish databases for ownership of movable and immovable properties in accordance with the Regulations; and
3. enable linkage and integration with the Ministry's electronic systems relating to enforcement petitions.

Article 17

Subject to the Kingdom's obligations under international treaties and conventions, exchange of disclosure on assets with other states shall be on the basis of reciprocity, to the extent necessary to achieve the purpose of such exchange, and in a manner that does not undermine national security.

Chapter 3: Compulsory Enforcement Proceedings

Article 18

1. If five business days lapse from the date of service or publication of the writ of execution in accordance with Article 14 of this Law, and if the party subject to enforcement fails to fulfill his obligation, compulsory enforcement proceedings shall be immediately initiated against the assets provided for in paragraph (2) of this Article, unless the party subject to enforcement provides a bank guarantee sufficient to satisfy the obligation; in such case, he shall be granted an additional period of 10 business days to satisfy the obligation.
2. Compulsory enforcement against assets shall be carried out as follows:
 - a) Notifying entities licensed to record credit information of the default in satisfaction of the obligation.
 - b) Attaching and enforcing against existing assets and any future income, including any amounts payable to him by public entities, in accordance with applicable provisions.
3. In addition to the measures provided for in paragraph (2) of this Article, the court may impose a fine of not more than five thousand riyals on the party subject to enforcement for each day of delay beyond the date set for completion of enforcement, provided that such fine does not exceed the limit specified in the Regulations. The court may waive the fine, or part thereof, if the party subject to enforcement fulfills his obligations. The fine shall not be collected until completion of distribution of the enforcement proceeds. The total amount of the fine shall devolve to the State treasury.
4. The Regulations shall specify the mechanisms for implementing the measures provided for in paragraphs (2 and 3) of this Article.

Article 19

1. If the period provided for in Article 18(1) of this Law expires, the court shall, upon a petition by the party seeking enforcement, impose a travel ban on the party subject to enforcement for a period not exceeding three years, extendable upon a new petition filed with the court by the party seeking enforcement, provided that the total duration of the ban periods does not exceed six years. In all cases, the travel ban shall expire upon the termination of the enforcement petition.
2. A travel ban shall not prejudice the jurisdiction of competent authorities to terminate the residency permit of a non-Saudi, order him to leave the country, or deport him, in accordance with applicable statutory provisions.
3. The court shall lift the travel ban in the following cases:
 - a) If the health condition of the party subject to enforcement requires, based on a certified medical report, medical treatment outside the Kingdom.
 - b) If the total amount of the debt or debts subject to enforcement is small, as specified in the Regulations.
 - c) If the profession, trade, or job of the party subject to enforcement requires travel outside the Kingdom.
 - d) If the travel ban would cause harm to the party subject to enforcement.

- e) If the party subject to enforcement discloses assets sufficient to satisfy the debt and no encumbrance exists that would prevent recovery therefrom.
4. The Regulations shall specify the controls necessary for the implementation of this Article.

Chapter 4: Asset Tracing

Article 20

1. If the party subject to enforcement fails to comply with the writ of execution after commencement of compulsory enforcement proceedings, the court shall, upon a petition by the party seeking enforcement, order the tracing of his assets if presumptions exist that the other party has concealed or fraudulently transferred assets. The costs of asset tracing shall be deemed enforcement expenses.
2. To the extent necessary to fulfill the right underlying the enforcement document, the court shall, upon a petition by the party seeking enforcement, authorize such party to access any information in its possession relating to the assets of the party subject to enforcement. The court may also order the authority in charge of property oversight or registration to grant access to information in its possession to persons entrusted with any of the enforcement proceedings. The Regulations shall specify the controls necessary for implementation of this paragraph.

Article 21

1. Upon a petition by the party seeking enforcement and if presumptions exist that the other party has concealed or fraudulently transferred assets, the court may interrogate or order the competent department or private entity licensed to trace assets to interrogate the party subject to enforcement or any person suspected, based on presumptions, of unlawfully receiving assets from his relatives, agents, debtors, persons with whom he has a contractual relationship of employment or financial dealings, or persons suspected of aiding him.
2. The person ordered to appear for interrogation pursuant to paragraph (1) of this Article must comply with such order within a period not exceeding three business days from the date the notice is duly served, as specified in the Regulations. The court may, when necessary, order that such person be compelled to appear before the court for interrogation.
3. The court may order the competent authority, or the authority in charge of property oversight or registration, to trace the assets of the party subject to enforcement and any person suspected of receiving unlawfully transferred assets, and to provide the court with a report thereon.

Article 22

The Regulations shall specify the controls and procedures governing the tracing of assets, as provided for in this Chapter.

Chapter 5: Attachment in Aid of Execution

Article 23

1. All assets of the party subject to enforcement shall be held as security for his debts as of the date of notification to satisfy the debt in accordance with Article 12 of this Law or as of the date of service or publication of the writ of execution in accordance with Article 14 of this Law.
2. Attachment and enforcement against provisionally attached assets shall be effected by the competent authority, and the garnishee shall notify the authority imposing the provisional attachment once attachment in aid of execution is effected. The Regulations shall specify the procedures necessary for the implementation of this paragraph.

Article 24

1. The party seeking enforcement may file a lawsuit to nullify any disposition the party subject to enforcement made to his assets if it is established that such disposition occurred after the date of notification to satisfy the debt in accordance with Article 12 of this Law or after the date of service or publication of the writ of execution in accordance with Article 14 of this Law and prior to the issuance of the writ of attachment. The court shall issue a judgment against the transferee to nullify the disposition wholly or partly up to the amount of the obligation stated in the enforcement document if such disposition is in the form of:
 - a) gifts or donations;
 - b) prepayment of debt;
 - c) contracts and financial obligations not customary for a person in his position, as determined by the court.
2. Any disposition of the assets subject of enforcement made by the party subject to enforcement shall be nullified if such disposition is made after the issuance of the writ of attachment.

Article 25

1. Attachment of assets of a party subject to enforcement may not exceed the amount of the debt claimed, unless the attached asset is indivisible.
2. The court shall determine the assets the enforcement against which would achieve prompt fulfillment, whether before or after the issuance of the writ of attachment. The Regulations shall specify the relevant controls.
3. The party subject to enforcement may designate specific assets for enforcement if he proves that he owns assets in excess of the amount of the debt. The court shall adopt such designation unless it prejudices enforcement.

Article 26

The following may not be subject to attachment and enforcement:

1. Public funds.
2. The residence occupied by the party subject to enforcement or his dependents or the means of transportation used by him or his dependents only to the extent required by their needs, the items necessary to practice his profession or trade, and his personal effects. Assets provided for in this paragraph may be subject to attachment and enforcement if pledged to the creditor or if they constitute the very property claimed by the party seeking enforcement.
3. Wages and salaries, except as follows:
 - a) One-half of the total wage or salary for payment of alimony and child support.
 - b) One-third of the total wage or salary for payment of other debts.

In cases where debts compete for limited assets, one-half of the total wage or salary shall be allocated to alimony and child support, and one-third of the remaining half shall be allocated to other debts and, if there are multiple creditors, such amount shall be distributed among them.

4. Civil and military pensions, except as follows:
 - a) One-half of the total pension for payment of alimony and child support.
 - b) One-quarter of the total pension for payment of other debts.

In cases where debts compete for limited assets, one-half of the total pension shall be allocated to alimony and child support, and one-quarter of the remaining half shall be allocated to other debts and, if there are multiple creditors, such amount shall be distributed among them.

5. Government subsidies to the party subject to enforcement.
6. Any assets exempted pursuant to a resolution by the Council of Ministers.

The Regulations shall specify the provisions and procedures necessary for the implementation of paragraphs (1, 2, 3, 4, and 5) of this Article.

Article 27

1. The authority in charge of property oversight or registration must promptly enforce the attachment ordered by the court.
2. If enforcement requires the use of force, the court may order the competent force to execute the enforcement.
3. The Regulations shall specify the procedures for the attachment, deposit, management, and receivership of assets, including procedures for attachment of assets due to the debtor in the future.

Article 28

If the court has evidence or presumptions that the party subject to enforcement or another person has engaged in criminal conduct by concealing, fraudulently transferring, or dissipating the assets subject of enforcement, or by providing to the court misleading or incorrect information, the court shall refer the matter to the competent authority in charge of investigation to take necessary legal action in accordance with applicable statutory provisions; this shall not prejudice enforcement proceedings.

Chapter 6: Sale of Attached Assets

Article 29

The court may allow a party subject to enforcement to sell his assets to the extent that serves the purposes of enforcement. The Regulations shall specify the relevant provisions.

Article 30

1. Except in the case provided for in Article 29 of this Law and as specified in the Regulations, attached assets shall be sold by public auction.
2. The sale contract shall be deemed concluded with full legal effect upon issuance of the decision awarding the auction to the winning bidder.
3. No claims may be raised against the winning bidder regarding sold items for which an award decision has been issued.
4. Securities subject to the Capital Market Law shall be sold in accordance with controls agreed upon with the authority in charge of overseeing the Capital Market in a manner that ensures fair pricing and compliance with enforcement safeguards.
5. The Regulations shall specify the provisions necessary for the implementation of paragraphs (1, 2, and 3) of this Article.

Article 31

1. Sale proceeds shall not be delivered to the party seeking enforcement or his representative except upon completion of ownership transfer procedures by the competent authority.
2. An occupant of a real property shall vacate such property if requested by the person to whom ownership of the property is transferred in accordance with this Chapter, unless he occupies it pursuant to an enforcement document conferring a right to utilize the property. In the event the occupant refuses to vacate the property, the court shall take the measures set forth in Article 36 of this Law if petitioned by the new owner.

Chapter 7: Enforcement Expenses

Article 32

1. Without prejudice to paragraph (2) of this Article, the party subject to enforcement shall bear the enforcement expenses, unless such expenses are attributed to another person; in such case, the expenses shall be borne by such person pursuant to a court decision, which shall be appealable in accordance with applicable procedures.
2. The party seeking enforcement shall bear the enforcement expenses if he terminates the enforcement petition pursuant to Article 43(1)(e and f) of this Law, unless he agrees otherwise with the party subject to enforcement.
3. Without prejudice to paragraph (1) of this Article, the enforcement expenses shall be paid by the party subject to enforcement. If he refuses, the party seeking enforcement or any other party with interest from among the enforcement parties may make such payment. Failure to pay such expenses shall result in a stay of the enforcement proceedings provided for in this Law.

Chapter 8: Deposit and Distribution of Enforcement Proceeds

Article 33

1. The Ministry shall open bank accounts and maintain safe-deposit boxes for enforcement purposes. The deposit and disbursement of enforcement proceeds, as well as the management of bank accounts and safe-deposit boxes, shall be in accordance with the controls and procedures specified in the Regulations.
2. The Regulations shall, in coordination with the Saudi Central Bank, specify the provisions and procedures for the participation of banks and similar institutions in enforcement proceedings.

Article 34

If enforcement proceeds are sufficient to satisfy the amounts owed to the attaching parties and persons deemed parties in enforcement proceedings pursuant to the provisions of this Law, the court shall order the distribution of such proceeds among such parties in accordance with the Regulations.

Article 35

If enforcement proceeds are not sufficient to satisfy the amounts owed to the attaching parties and to persons deemed parties in enforcement proceedings pursuant to the provisions of this Law, the court shall proceed as follows:

1. If the attaching parties and persons deemed parties in the proceedings reach an amicable settlement for the distribution of the proceeds, the court shall enter such settlement into the minutes and order the distribution be made accordingly.
2. If the attaching parties and persons deemed parties in the proceedings fail to reach an amicable settlement for the distribution of the proceeds, the court shall order such distribution be carried out, provided that priority is given to privileged debts over all other debts in accordance with applicable statutory provisions and the controls specified in the Regulations. The proceeds distribution order shall be appealable in accordance with applicable procedures.

Chapter 9: Direct Enforcement

Article 36

If enforcement involves an act or omission of an act and the party subject to enforcement fails to comply within five business days from the date of service or publication of the writ of execution in accordance with Article 14 of this Law, the following compulsory enforcement measures shall be carried out:

1. The court shall promptly order the competent force to carry out all necessary enforcement proceedings, except for actions that must be performed by the party subject to enforcement.
2. The court shall, when necessary, promptly request the competent authority to effect fulfillment of the right underlying the enforcement document.
3. If enforcement cannot be carried out by the competent force or the competent authority, or if the party subject to enforcement fails to perform any of the actions required for enforcement, the following compulsory enforcement measures shall be carried out:
 - a) The court shall, upon a petition by the party seeking enforcement, order that a travel ban be placed on the party subject to enforcement in accordance with Article 19 of this Law.
 - b) The court shall impose against the party subject to enforcement a fine not exceeding ten thousand riyals for each day of delay beyond the date set for completion of enforcement, provided that such fine does not exceed the limit prescribed in the Regulations. The court may waive the fine or part thereof if said party fulfills his obligation. The total amount of the fine shall devolve to the State treasury.

The Regulations shall specify the controls and procedures necessary for the implementation of this Article, including the controls and procedures for eviction and for disposal of movables in the property, if not collected by their owner.

Article 37

1. If 30 business days lapse from the date of carrying out any of the compulsory enforcement measures provided for in Article 36 of this Law and the party subject to enforcement fails to fulfill his obligation, the court shall, upon a petition by the party seeking enforcement, order his imprisonment for a term not exceeding 180 days to compel compliance therewith, renewable for an additional term upon a petition by the party seeking enforcement.
2. A party subject to enforcement may not be imprisoned pursuant to paragraph (1) of this Article if he is under 18 years of age, if it is established by a certified medical report that he suffers from an illness that renders him unfit for imprisonment, if such party is a pregnant woman or a mother whose child is under two years of age, or if such party is an ascendant or descendant of the party seeking enforcement.
3. Persons imprisoned pursuant to paragraph (1) of this Article shall be housed separately from inmates convicted in criminal cases.
4. Completion of the imprisonment sentence in accordance with paragraph (1) of this Article shall not discharge the obligation underlying an enforcement document.

Chapter 10: Enforcement in Family Matters

Article 38

1. Enforcement documents in family matters shall be executed in the manner prescribed by this Law and the Regulations.
2. The Regulations shall specify enforcement proceedings in family matters involving periodic payments.

Article 39

1. An enforcement document relating to custody and visitation shall be carried out by compulsion, if warranted, even if this requires resorting to the competent force and forcibly entering homes. Enforcement of such document shall be repeated if necessary.
2. Direct enforcement provisions shall apply to non-complying parties in family matters in accordance with the controls specified in the Regulations; such controls shall take into account the nature of family matters and the circumstances of enforcement.

Article 40

The court shall, in executing an enforcement document regarding visitation of a person subject of custody, take into consideration the interest of such person and the circumstances of enforcement. The Regulations shall specify the provisions necessary for the implementation of this Article.

Chapter 11: Enforcement against Private Legal Personality

Article 41

1. Direct enforcement provisions shall, in enforcement against private legal personality, apply to any of its personnel who obstructs enforcement, in accordance with the controls and procedures specified in the Regulations.
2. The Regulations shall, subject to paragraph (1) of this Article, specify the provisions and proceedings for enforcement against the private legal personality in accordance with the provisions of this Law and other relevant laws, and in a manner consistent with the nature of enforcement against such personality.

Chapter 12: Termination of Enforcement Petition

Article 42

The party seeking enforcement must, within the period prescribed in the Regulations, terminate his petition upon satisfaction of the right underlying the enforcement document.

Article 43

1. An enforcement petition shall terminate in any of the following cases:
 - a) If the right underlying the enforcement document is satisfied.
 - b) If the court establishes that the party subject to enforcement has no assets. In such case, a decision shall be issued to terminate the petition, and such decision shall be appealable in accordance with applicable procedures.
 - c) If all enforcement proceedings provided for in this Law and the Regulations have been exhausted, and the period prescribed for the enforcement petition has lapsed after the last proceeding.
 - d) If enforcement is not feasible. In such case, a decision by the court shall be issued to terminate the petition, and such decision shall be appealable in accordance with applicable procedures.
 - e) If the party seeking enforcement terminates his petition following an agreement with the party subject to enforcement, or for any other reason.
 - f) If the party seeking enforcement discharges the party subject to enforcement from the obligation underlying the enforcement document.
2. Termination of an enforcement petition under the cases provided for in paragraph (1)(b, c, d, and e) of this Article shall not prejudice the creditor's right to refile such petition in accordance with the provisions of this Law if grounds for refiling exist.
3. The Regulations shall specify the controls and procedures necessary for the implementation of this Article.

Part 5: Enforcement Disputes and Appeals against Enforcement Proceedings

Article 44

All court orders and decisions shall be final except as otherwise provided for in this Law.

Article 45

1. Without prejudice to Article 4(2) of this Law, any person with interest, whether a party to the enforcement or otherwise, may file a claim contesting the validity of an enforcement document, the conditions for its enforcement, or the jurisdiction of the court.
2. The court shall decide an enforcement dispute in accordance with the provisions governing summary cases and the procedures specified in the Regulations.
3. The Council shall determine enforcement disputes in which rendered judgments are not appealable.
4. Judgments rendered by appellate circuits regarding the judgments of enforcement disputes may not be appealable by way of cassation.
5. Notwithstanding paragraph (4) of this Article, the Council may determine enforcement disputes in which rendered judgments may be appealable by way of cassation.

Article 46

1. Any person with interest may file a grievance against orders or decisions issued by the court, the competent department, or a private sector entity regarding the enforcement proceedings specified in the Regulations.
2. A grievance shall be decided by the chief judge of the court or the party the Council designates within 10 business days from the day following the date on which access to a decision or order is made available, in accordance with the Regulations. The chief judge or the party designated by the Council, as the case may be, may stay enforcement of such order or decision if warranted, pending issuance of a decision on the grievance; such stay shall entail staying all related proceedings and time limits.
3. In all cases, the decision on the grievance provided for in this Article shall be final.

Article 47

1. The existence of an enforcement dispute, a dispute relating to the merits of the claim underlying the enforcement document, or a grievance against any enforcement proceeding shall not preclude continuation of enforcement proceedings in accordance with the provisions of this Law and the Regulations, unless the person considering such disputes or grievance decides otherwise.
2. A stay of enforcement proceedings shall entail staying all relating proceedings and time limits.

Part 6: Penalties

Article 48

1. Save for Article 57(1) of this Law, the competent court shall consider claims arising from the application of the provisions of this Part and shall impose the penalties prescribed therein.
2. The competent authority in charge of investigation and prosecution shall undertake investigation and prosecution before the competent court with respect to the offenses provided for in this Part.

Article 49

1. Without prejudice to relevant statutory provisions, detection and recording of offenses provided for in this Part shall be carried out by officers from the Ministry or from any other public entity. Said officers shall be appointed pursuant to a decision by the Minister and shall have the capacity of preliminary investigation officers. The Regulations shall specify their powers, as well as the procedures and controls necessary for performing their duties and exercising their powers.
2. Paragraph (1) of this Article shall not prejudice the power of the court to refer acts constituting offenses under this Part directly to the competent authority in charge of investigation and prosecution for completion of the necessary actions in accordance with relevant statutory provisions.

Article 50

1. Imprisonment for a term not exceeding three years and a fine not exceeding one million riyals, or either penalty, shall be imposed on any person who commits any of the following offenses:
 - a) Concealment or transfer of assets with the intent of preventing satisfaction of the right underlying the enforcement document as provided for in the provisions of this Law.
 - b) Deliberate obstruction of enforcement by refusing to comply with the writ of execution, refusing to disclose assets, filing a lawsuit to impede enforcement, disposing of assets subject of enforcement after issuance of the writ of attachment, or failing to respond to the interrogation, subject to the provisions of this Law.
 - c) Resistance of enforcement by threatening or assaulting, personally or through another person, an official or an authorized person during execution of enforcement or by reason thereof, committing any such acts against the party seeking enforcement by reason of enforcement, or committing any other unlawful act with the intent of resisting enforcement.
 - d) Deliberate submission of misleading or incorrect information to the court or during enforcement proceedings.
2. An accomplice in the commission of any of the offenses provided for in this Article shall be subject to the penalty prescribed in paragraph (1) of this Article. A person shall be deemed an accomplice if he knowingly agrees to, incites, or aids and abets in the commission of an offense and if the offense is committed as a result of such agreement, incitement, or aiding and abetting.

Article 51

A public servant and any person of similar status who prevents or obstructs enforcement shall be subject to imprisonment for a term not exceeding five years. Such act shall be deemed an offense impinging upon integrity.

Article 52

1. Any debtor proven to have dissipated his assets, if such assets are substantial, shall be subject to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 15 years, even if such debtor is established to be insolvent. Such act shall constitute a major offense warranting detention.
2. The Public Prosecutor shall, upon coordination with the Ministry of Justice and the Ministry of Finance, establish controls and standards for determining when assets are deemed substantial as provided for in paragraph (1) of this Article, as per the types of debts and assets of debtors.

Article 53

Imprisonment for a term not exceeding three years and a fine not exceeding one hundred thousand riyals, or either penalty, shall be imposed on:

1. the party seeking enforcement who petitions for a specific enforcement proceeding with the intent of harming the party subject to enforcement, or who, with the intent of harming the party subject to enforcement, delays termination of an enforcement petition after the right underlying the enforcement document is satisfied;
2. a person authorized under the provisions of this Law to access information relating to the assets of the party subject to enforcement who discloses such information without legal grounds; the same penalty shall apply to any person who, without a judicial order, accesses such information;
3. any licensed enforcement service provider, or any of the subordinates thereof, breaching duties by misappropriating assets or evading delivery or receipt of assets; and
4. the appraiser, sale agent, their subordinates, or any participant in auction sales, who deliberately influences or manipulates prices.

Article 54

A parent or any other person who refuses, resists, or obstructs enforcement of a writ of execution relating to custody, guardianship, or visitation shall be subject to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 90 days and a fine not exceeding thirty thousand riyals, or to either penalty.

Article 55

If an act constituting an offense under this Part constitutes an offense under another law, the harsher penalty shall be imposed.

Article 56

In case of repeating any of the offenses provided for in this Part, the prescribed penalty may be doubled even if it entails exceeding the maximum limit, provided that it does not exceed double the maximum limit. A person shall be deemed a repeat offender if he commits the same offense for which a final judgment was rendered within three years from the date of such judgment.

Article 57

1. Without prejudice to any harsher penalty stipulated in any other law and absent a specific provision in this Law, an enforcement service provider who violates any provisions of this Law, the Regulations, or the Regulations for the Activities of Enforcement Service Providers shall be subject to one or more of the following penalties:
 - a) A warning.
 - b) A fine not exceeding three hundred thousand riyals.
 - c) Suspension of the license for a period not exceeding one year.
 - d) Revocation of the license.
2. The Minister shall form a committee, or more, comprising at least three members, one of whom is the chairman and among them is a legal advisor, to consider the violations referred to in paragraph (1) of this Article and impose the penalties prescribed therein, according to the type, gravity, and impact of the violation. Committee decisions must be approved by the Minister or his designee. The Minister shall issue a decision determining the committee's work rules and procedures and the remuneration of its members.
3. A person against whom a decision is issued by the committee referred to in paragraph (2) of this Article may file a grievance with the administrative court in accordance with the provisions of the Law of Procedure before the Board of Grievances.

Article 58

1. The competent court or the committee referred to in Article 57(2) of this Law may, as the case may be, include in its penalty decision or judgment a provision requiring publication of a summary thereof at the expense of the convicted person or the violator, in a newspaper, or more, issued in his area of residence or, if none exists, in the nearest area, or through any other appropriate means, according to the type, gravity, and impact of the offense or violation. Such publication shall be made after the judgment becomes final, the decision becomes unappealable due to the lapse of the statutory period for filing grievances, or upon the issuance of a final ruling to dismiss the grievance.
2. The competent court or the committee referred to in Article 57(2) of this Law may, as the case may be, include in its judgment or penalty decision a provision requiring the violator to attend certain correctional programs at his own expense.

Part 7: Final Provisions

Article 59

Absent a specific provision in this Law, the Law of Civil Procedure shall apply to the procedures and disputes provided for in this Law, in a manner not inconsistent therewith.

Article 60

1. Except for the issuance of orders of imprisonment against the party subject to enforcement compelling direct enforcement; orders banning travel outside the Kingdom; adjudication of disputes and grievances; and the issuance of judgments, the enforcement proceedings provided for in this Law and the Regulations may, pursuant to the Minister's decision, be assigned to the competent department, the competent authority after coordination therewith, or the private sector.
2. A private sector entity to which an enforcement proceeding is assigned pursuant to paragraph (1) of this Article must meet the following conditions:
 - a) The entity must be licensed in the Kingdom to engage in the activity subject of the assignment.
 - b) The entity must have the technical expertise and financial capacity necessary to carry out the assignment, as determined by the Ministry.
 - c) The entity must not have a conflict of interest, whether actual or potential.
 - d) The entity must maintain confidentiality of any information to which it becomes privy by reason of the assignment; such obligation shall survive the expiration of the assignment.
3. The Regulations shall specify the provisions and procedures necessary for the implementation of paragraph (1) of this Article.

Article 61

1. The Ministry shall license and supervise enforcement service providers, including court-appointed sale agents and receivers as well as service providers for asset tracing, asset recovery, and enforcement of visitations in family matters, and other persons specified in the Regulations.
2. The Minister shall issue regulations governing the activities of enforcement service providers, including their functions, licensing requirements and financial guarantees, qualifications and duties, as well as the rules and procedures for detecting and recording violations committed thereby, and the policies for determining their service fees.

Article 62

Approved electronic means shall be used for taking decisions or carrying out any of the enforcement proceedings provided for in this Law and the Regulations. If the purpose of the decision or proceeding can be achieved through approved modern technology methods, such methods shall be used. If, however, enforcement through approved electronic means or approved modern technology methods proves infeasible, ordinary means shall be used.

Article 63

The Ministry shall issue the procedural guidelines, decisions, and forms necessary for the implementation of this Law and the Regulations.

Article 64

The Minister shall issue the Regulations within 180 days from the date of publication of this Law in the Official Gazette. The Regulations shall enter into force from the date this Law enters into force.

Article 65

1. This Law shall supersede the Enforcement Law promulgated by Royal Decree No. M/53, dated 13/8/1433H, and its amendments, and shall repeal any provision conflicting therewith.
2. This Law shall enter into force 180 days from the date of its publication in the Official Gazette.
