

Bureau of Experts at the Council of Ministers
Official Translation Department

Public Prosecution Law

Royal Decree No. M/56
May 30, 1989

Translation of Saudi Laws

NOTES:

1. This translation is provided for guidance. The governing text is the Arabic text.
2. The translation of Saudi laws takes the following into consideration:
 - Words used in the singular form include the plural and vice versa.
 - Words used in the masculine form include the feminine.
 - Words used in the present tense include the present as well as the future.
 - The word “person” or “persons” and their related pronouns (he, his, him, they, their, them, and who) refer to a natural and legal person.
3. Amendments to this Law are provided in the Appendix.

For any comments or inquiries, please contact the Official Translation Department at:

otd@boe.gov.sa

Public Prosecution Law

Part 1: Establishment, Formation, and Functions of the Bureau of Investigation and Public Prosecution

Article 1

Pursuant to this Law, an agency named the Bureau of Investigation and Public Prosecution shall be established and shall report to the Minister of Interior; it shall have a budget within the budget of the Ministry.

The headquarters of the Bureau of Investigation and Public Prosecution shall be the city of Riyadh and it may establish branches inside and outside its headquarters, as necessary.

Article 2

The Bureau shall be composed of a president, one or more vice-presidents, and an adequate number of heads of circuits and their deputies and investigators and their assistants.

Article 3

First:

The Bureau shall have the following functions, in accordance with the law and as specified in the regulations:

- a) Investigating crimes.
- b) Taking action regarding investigations by filing or dismissing cases in accordance with the regulations.
- c) Prosecuting before judicial bodies in accordance with the regulations.
- d) Petitioning the appeal of judgments.
- e) Supervising the execution of criminal sentences.
- f) Monitoring and inspecting prisons and detention centers as well as any place where criminal sentences are executed, hearing the complaints of prisoners and detainees, verifying the legitimacy of their imprisonment or detention and the legitimacy of their continued imprisonment or detention beyond the period prescribed therefor, taking the measures necessary to release illegitimately imprisoned or detained persons, and taking legal action against those responsible therefor. The Minister of Interior must be informed of any observations in this regard, and a report shall be submitted to him every six months about the conditions of prisoners and detainees.
- g) Any other function assigned to the Bureau by law, the regulations issued pursuant to this Law, Council of Ministers resolutions, or high orders.

Second:

The regulations issued pursuant to this Law shall specify the manner in which the Bureau exercises its functions, including investigation and prosecution, as well as the relationship between investigators and law enforcement agencies and governorates and the coordination of work between the investigators and said agencies.

Third:

The regulations shall specify the transitional provisions necessary for the Bureau to exercise its functions.

Fourth:

Notwithstanding the provisions of Articles 19 and 20 of the Law of the Council of Ministers, the investigation and prosecution of crimes assigned by law to other government agencies may, pursuant to a Council of Ministers resolution, be assigned to the Bureau.

Article 4

- A. A committee named the Bureau Administration Committee shall be formed and shall comprise the President of the Bureau as Chairman as well as the Vice-president of the Bureau and five Bureau members of a rank not lower than Deputy Head of Investigation and Prosecution Circuit "A"; such members shall be selected by the Minister of Interior based on a recommendation by the President of the Bureau.
- B. Meetings of the Bureau Administration Committee shall be chaired by the President of the Bureau or his Vice-president, and shall not be deemed valid unless attended by six members, including the chairman of the meeting. If a member does not attend a meeting because the Committee is considering a matter concerning him or in which he has direct interest, or due to any other reason, said member shall be replaced by another member to be selected by the Minister of Interior upon a recommendation by the President of the Bureau from among those who meet the membership requirements of the Bureau Administration Committee. Committee decisions shall be passed by the absolute majority of its members.
- C. The Bureau Administration Committee shall, in addition to the powers provided for in this Law and its regulations, have the following powers:
 - 1. Reviewing indictments in cases in which the penalty of death, amputation, or stoning is imposed.
 - 2. Reviewing matters relating to investigation and prosecution pursuant to an order by the Minister of Interior.
 - 3. Preparing the Bureau's annual report which shall include the Committee's views and proposals regarding the Bureau's work progress as well as its observations regarding the laws and procedures applied thereby, and submitting the same to the Minister of Interior who shall in turn submit it to the Custodian of the Two Holy Mosques with his views thereon.

Part 2: Members and Employees of the Bureau

Article 5

Members of the Bureau shall have absolute independence; they shall, in the conduct of their work, be subject only to the provisions of Sharia and applicable laws and no person may interfere with their work.

Article 6

Without prejudice to the provisions of this Law, members of the Bureau shall have the rights and guarantees provided for in the Civil Service Law and the Pension Law, and they shall observe the duties provided for in the Civil Service Law.

Article 7

A member of the Bureau may not, while serving as a member, engage in commercial activities or in any profession or work that is inconsistent with the independence and integrity of the work of the Bureau.

The Bureau Administration Committee may prohibit a Bureau member from engaging in any work it deems inconsistent with his duties and the proper performance thereof.

Article 8

A Bureau member may not disclose any confidential information he becomes privy to during the course of his service, even after the end of such service.

Article 9

The titles of the positions of Bureau members shall be as follows:

- Attendant Investigator.
- Assistant Investigator.
- Second Investigator.
- First Investigator.
- Deputy Head of Investigation and Prosecution Circuit “B”.
- Deputy Head of Investigation and Prosecution Circuit “A”.
- Head of Investigation and Prosecution Circuit “B”.
- Head of Investigation and Prosecution Circuit “A”.
- Vice-president.

The salaries of Bureau members shall be in accordance with the Pay Scale of Bureau Members attached to this Law.

Article 10

The President of the Bureau shall be appointed by royal order at the rank of grade “Excellent” upon a nomination by the Minister of Interior; he shall, at least, meet the requirements of the position of Vice-president. Appointment to other Bureau positions as well as the transfer of Bureau members to other agencies shall be pursuant to a royal order based on a decision by the Bureau Administration Committee and a recommendation by the Minister of Interior.

Article 11

Subject to the provisions of this Law, the Council of Ministers shall determine the requirements for Bureau positions and the manner in which the affairs of its members and other employees are handled with regard to appointment, promotion, transfer, secondment, lending of services, performance review, inspection, and any other matter related to their employment.

Article 12

The service of a Bureau member shall be terminated in any of the following cases:

- a) Acceptance of resignation.
- b) Reaching the age of 65.
- c) Acceptance of a retirement request pursuant to the Pension Law.
- d) Forced retirement pursuant to Article 25 of this Law.
- e) Receiving a below-average performance review three consecutive times.
- f) Loss of the trust and respect required for the position.
- g) Health incapacity.
- h) Failure to demonstrate competence during the probation period.
- i) Death.

Article 13

In cases other than death, reaching the age of retirement, and failure to demonstrate competence during the probation period, the service of a Bureau member shall be terminated by royal order based on a decision by the Bureau Administration Committee and a request from the Minister of Interior.

Part 3: Disciplining Bureau Members

Article 14

A member of the Bureau may only be tried in accordance with the rules and conditions for disciplining Bureau members.

Article 15

The Bureau Administration Committee shall, in its capacity as a disciplinary board, have the power to take disciplinary action against members of the Bureau. If the member standing trial is a member of the Committee, the President of the Bureau shall assign a Bureau member of the rank of Head of Investigation and Prosecution Circuit “A” as a replacement. Prior participation in requesting the forced retirement of an accused member or the initiation of disciplinary action against him shall not preclude a member from sitting on the Disciplinary Board.

Article 16

The head of an investigation and prosecution circuit or circuits may warn, verbally or in writing, the investigators of such circuit or circuits of any violation of their duties or the requirements of their positions after hearing their statements. In case of a written warning, the President of the Bureau shall submit a copy thereof to the Minister of Interior. The investigator subject of the warning shall have the right to object thereto within 15 days from the date of notification thereof by requesting an investigation of the incident that led to the issuance of the warning. In such case, a committee shall be formed comprising the President of the Bureau and a Deputy Head of Investigation and Prosecution Circuit “A” or comprising the Vice-president of the Bureau and a Deputy Head of Investigation and Prosecution Circuit “B”. Said committee may, after hearing the statements of the objecting investigator, assign any of its members the task of conducting an investigation if deemed necessary, uphold the warning, or consider the warning null and void; it shall notify the Minister of Interior of its decision. If the violation is repeated or if it continues after the committee upholds the warning, disciplinary action shall be initiated.

Article 17

Disciplinary action shall be initiated pursuant to an order by the Minister of Interior upon a recommendation by the President of the Bureau. Said action shall only be initiated based on an investigation conducted by a member of the Bureau assigned by the Minister of Interior based on a recommendation by the President of the Bureau. The Bureau member assigned to conduct the investigation shall be of a rank higher than that of the member under investigation or his senior with regards to service if they are of the same rank.

Article 18

Disciplinary action shall be filed using a memorandum which includes the charge made against the accused as well as supporting evidence; it shall be submitted to the Disciplinary Board which shall issue a decision to summon the accused to appear before the Board.

Article 19

In cases in which a Bureau member is caught in flagrante delicto and detained, the matter shall be referred to the Bureau Administration Committee within 24 hours of the detention. The Committee may decide to continue detention of the member or to release him, with or without bail, and he may request a hearing before the Committee upon the presentation of the matter thereto. The Committee shall, in its decision to detain or continue detention of the member, specify the period of the detention. The aforementioned procedures shall be observed if it is deemed necessary to continue provisional detention of the member upon the lapse of the period specified in the Committee's decision. Otherwise, a Bureau member may not be arrested, subjected to investigation procedures, or be the subject of a criminal suit without the Committee's approval. Separate facilities shall be designated for detaining members of the Bureau and enforcing freedom-restricting penalties against them.

Article 20

The Disciplinary Board may conduct any investigation it deems necessary; it may assign any of its members to conduct such investigation.

If the Disciplinary Board decides to proceed with trial procedures on all or some of the charges made against the accused Bureau member, said member shall be summoned and given sufficient time to appear before the Board. The summons must include a brief statement of the subject of the suit and the inculpatory evidence.

Article 21

The Disciplinary Board may, upon deciding to proceed with trial procedures, order the suspension of the accused from the performance of his duties. The Board may, at any time, reconsider the suspension order.

Article 22

A disciplinary action shall be terminated upon the member's resignation from the Bureau. The disciplinary action shall have no effect, however, on any criminal or civil lawsuit resulting from the same incident.

Article 23

Disciplinary Board hearings shall be closed and the Board shall render its judgment after hearing the defense of the accused Bureau member. Said member may submit his defense in writing and he may authorize any of the members of the Bureau to defend him. The Board reserves the right, at any time, to summon the accused member; if said member fails to appear in person or fails to authorize someone to appear on his behalf, the judgment may be rendered in absentia, upon verification of the validity of the summons.

Article 24

The judgment in a disciplinary action must be reasoned and the reasons must be read when the judgment is pronounced in a closed hearing. The Disciplinary Board's judgments shall be final and unappealable.

Article 25

The disciplinary penalties that may be imposed on a member of the Bureau are reprimand and forced retirement.

Article 26

Disciplinary Board decisions shall be reported to the Minister of Interior. The penalty of forced retirement shall be enforced pursuant to a royal order and the penalty of reprimand shall be enforced pursuant to a decision by the Minister of Interior upon a recommendation by the President of the Bureau.

Part 4: General Provisions

Article 27

Without prejudice to the provisions of this Law and its regulations, the Minister of Interior shall oversee the Bureau and shall take the necessary procedures and measures or submit to the competent authorities any recommendation or proposal he deems necessary to ensure an appropriate standard of investigation and prosecution is observed. The President of the Bureau shall supervise all the Bureau's departments and investigation and prosecution circuits as well as all the investigators and employees therein.

Article 28

The Council of Ministers shall issue the necessary regulations for this Law based on a proposal by the Minister of Interior. The regulations shall specify the cases members of the Bureau may not handle, investigate, prepare, or issue decisions thereon, and the areas where expertise is required within the scope of the Bureau's work as well as the rights and duties of experts and the rules for disciplining them.

Article 29

This Law shall repeal any provisions conflicting therewith.

Article 30

This Law shall be published in the Official Gazette and shall enter into force on the date of its publication.

Appendix

Amendments

November 30, 2011 (Muharram 5, 1433H)

Royal Decree No. M/4 provides for the following:

- Amending the phrase "it shall have a budget within the budget of the Ministry" in Article 1 to read as follows: "it shall have an independent budget", provided that this amendment is enforced in accordance with a mechanism to be agreed upon by His Royal Highness the Crown Prince, Deputy Prime Minister, Minister of Interior, Supervisor of the Bureau of Investigation and Public Prosecution and His Excellency the Minister of Finance.

February 2, 2015 (Rabi II 13, 1436H)

Royal Decree No. M/31 provides for the following:

- Amending Articles 2, 3, 4, 5, 9, 10, 12, 15, 24, 25, and 26 to read as follows:

"Article 2

The Bureau shall be composed of a president, one or more vice-presidents, and an adequate number of members.

Article 3

1. The Bureau shall have the following functions, in accordance with the law and as specified in the regulations:
 - a) Investigating crimes.
 - b) Taking action regarding investigations by filing or dismissing cases.
 - c) Carrying out public prosecution before judicial bodies.
 - d) Petitioning the appeal or reversal of judgments.
 - e) Supervising the execution of criminal sentences.
 - f) Monitoring and inspecting prisons and detention centers as well as any place where criminal sentences are executed, receiving the complaints of prisoners and detainees, verifying the legitimacy of their imprisonment or detention and the legitimacy of their continued imprisonment or detention beyond the period prescribed therefor, taking the measures necessary to release illegitimately imprisoned or detained persons, and taking legal action against those responsible therefor. The Supervisor of the Bureau must be informed of any observations in this regard, and a report shall be submitted to him every six months about the conditions of prisoners and detainees.
 - g) Any other function assigned to the Bureau by law, the regulations issued pursuant to this Law, Council of Ministers resolutions, or high orders.
2. The regulations shall specify the manner in which the Bureau exercises its functions.
3. The regulations shall specify the transitional provisions necessary for the Bureau to exercise its functions.

4. The investigation and prosecution of crimes assigned by law to other government agencies may, pursuant to a Council of Ministers resolution, be assigned to the Bureau.

Article 4

1. A board named the Board of the Bureau shall be formed and shall comprise the following:
 - a) President of the Bureau, Chairman.
 - b) Vice-president of the Bureau, Vice-chairman.
 - c) Five Bureau members of a rank not lower than Head of Investigation and Prosecution Circuit "B".

Appointment of the vice-chairman and the members shall be approved by the Supervisor of the Bureau upon a recommendation by the President of the Bureau.

2. Meetings of the Board of the Bureau shall be chaired by its Chairman or Vice-chairman, and shall not be deemed valid unless attended by six members, including the chairman of the meeting. If a member does not attend a meeting because the Board is considering a matter concerning him or a matter in which he has direct interest, or due to any other reason, said member shall be replaced by another member to be selected by the Supervisor of the Bureau upon a recommendation by the President of the Bureau from among those who meet the membership requirements of the Board of the Bureau. Board decisions shall be passed by the absolute majority of its members; in case of a tie, the chairman of the meeting shall have the casting vote.
3. The Board of the Bureau shall, in addition to the powers provided for in this Law and its regulations, have the following powers:
 - a) Forming one or more circuits to review indictments in cases in which the penalty of death, amputation, stoning, or qisas for criminal homicide or lesser injuries is imposed as well as any decision referred thereto by the President of the Bureau. Each circuit shall be composed of three members.
 - b) Reviewing matters relating to investigation and prosecution pursuant to an order by the Supervisor of the Bureau as well as any matter referred thereto by the President of the Bureau.
 - c) Preparing the Bureau's annual report which shall include the Board's views and proposals regarding the Bureau's work progress as well as its observations regarding the laws and procedures applied thereby, and submitting the same to the Supervisor of the Bureau who shall in turn submit it to the King with his views thereon.

Article 5

Members of the Bureau shall have law enforcement authority and absolute independence; they shall, in the conduct of their work, be subject only to the provisions of Sharia and applicable laws and no person may interfere with their work.

Article 9

1. The titles of the positions of Bureau members shall be as follows:
 - Attendant Investigator.
 - Investigator “C”.
 - Investigator “B”.
 - Investigator “A”.
 - Deputy Head of Investigation and Prosecution Circuit “B”.
 - Deputy Head of Investigation and Prosecution Circuit “A”.
 - Head of Investigation and Prosecution Circuit “B”.
 - Head of Investigation and Prosecution Circuit “A”.
 - Appeals Prosecutor.
 - Head of Investigation and Prosecution Circuits.
2. Members of the Bureau shall have the same salaries, allowances, remuneration, and benefits as their counterparts in the judiciary in accordance with the approved schedule for equating Bureau positions with judicial positions.

Article 10

The President of the Bureau shall be appointed by royal order at the rank of grade “Minister” upon a nomination by the Supervisor of the Bureau; he shall, at least, meet the requirements of the position of Head of Investigation and Prosecution Circuits.

Appointment to other Bureau positions as well as the transfer of Bureau members to other agencies shall be pursuant to a royal order based on a decision by the Board of the Bureau and a recommendation by the Supervisor of the Bureau.

Article 12

The service of a Bureau member shall be terminated in any of the following cases:

- a) Reaching the age of 65. The Board of the Bureau may extend a member's service beyond said age for a period of one year, renewable for similar periods the aggregate of which shall not exceed five years.
- b) Death.
- c) Acceptance of resignation.
- d) Acceptance of a retirement request pursuant to the Civil Pension Law.
- e) Failure to demonstrate competence during the probation period.
- f) Failure to perform his duties after the lapse of a sick leave, or if, at any time, it is established that he is unable to carry out his duties properly due to illness.
- g) Receiving a below-average performance review three consecutive times.
- h) Termination of service for disciplinary reasons.

Article 15

A circuit named the Disciplinary Board shall be formed by the Board of the Bureau comprising three members to be appointed pursuant to a decision by the President of the Bureau. The Disciplinary Board shall have the power to take disciplinary action against members of the Bureau; its decisions shall be passed by majority vote and shall only become final after the approval of the Board of the Bureau.

Article 24

The judgment in a disciplinary action must be reasoned and the reasons must be read when the judgment is pronounced in a closed hearing.

Article 25

The disciplinary penalties that may be imposed on a member of the Bureau are reprimand and termination of service.

Article 26

Disciplinary Board decisions shall be submitted to the Supervisor of the Bureau. The penalty of termination of service shall be enforced pursuant to a royal order and the penalty of reprimand shall be enforced pursuant to a decision by the Supervisor of the Bureau upon a recommendation by the President of the Bureau".

June 17, 2017 (Ramadan 22, 1438H)

Royal Order No. A/240 provides for the following:

- The name "Bureau of Investigation and Public Prosecution" shall be changed to "Public Prosecution", and its head shall be called "Public Prosecutor".
- The Public Prosecution shall report directly to the King; it shall have absolute independence and no person may interfere with its work.

May 7, 2020 (Ramadan 14, 1441H)

Royal Decree No. M/125 provides for the following:

- The phrase "Public Prosecution" shall replace the phrase "Bureau of Investigation and Public Prosecution" and the phrase "Public Prosecutor" shall replace the phrase "President of the Bureau of Investigation and Public Prosecution" wherever they are mentioned in relevant laws, orders, decrees, regulations, and decisions.

- Amending Article 1 to read as follows:

"The Public Prosecution is part of the judiciary. It shall have absolute independence and shall report to the King and no person may interfere with its work.

The headquarters of the Public Prosecution shall be in the city of Riyadh and it may establish branches inside or outside the city of Riyadh, as necessary".

- Amending Article 2 to read as follows:

"The Public Prosecution shall be composed of the Public Prosecutor, Deputy Public Prosecutor, and an adequate number of members".

- Amending Article 3 to read as follows:
 1. The Public Prosecution shall have the following functions, in accordance with the law:
 - a) Investigating crimes.
 - b) Taking action regarding investigations by filing or dismissing cases.
 - c) Carrying out public prosecution before judicial bodies.
 - d) Petitioning the appeal or reversal of judgments.
 - e) Supervising the execution of criminal sentences.
 - f) Monitoring and inspecting prisons and detention centers as well as any place where criminal sentences are executed, receiving the complaints of prisoners and detainees, verifying the legitimacy of their imprisonment or detention and the legitimacy of their continued imprisonment or detention beyond the period prescribed therefor, taking the measures necessary to release illegitimately imprisoned or detained persons, and taking legal action against those responsible therefor.
 - g) Any other function assigned to the Public Prosecution by law".
- Amending Article 4 to read as follows:

"1. A board named the Public Prosecution Board shall be formed and shall comprise the following:

 - a) Public Prosecutor, Chairman.
 - b) Deputy Public Prosecutor, Member and Vice-chairman.
 - c) Seven Public Prosecution members of a rank not lower than Head of Investigation and Prosecution Circuit "A" to be appointed by royal order based on a recommendation by the Public Prosecutor, Members.

Board membership shall be for a renewable term of four years.

 2. Meetings of the Public Prosecution Board shall be chaired by its Chairman or Vice-chairman, and shall not be deemed valid unless attended by the majority of its members, including the chairman of the meeting. Board decisions shall be passed by the majority vote of its members; in case of a tie, the chairman of the meeting shall have the casting vote.
 3. The Public Prosecution Board shall, in addition to the powers provided for in this Law, have the following powers:
 - a) Considering any matter relating to the affairs of Public Prosecution members in accordance with prescribed rules and procedures, while ensuring their independence. This shall include matters relating to appointment, promotion, secondment, transfer, lending of services, training, inspection, disciplinary matters, termination of service, and the like.
 - b) Issuing regulations relating to the affairs of Public Prosecution members following the King's approval thereof.
 - c) Establishing the circuits necessary for the Public Prosecution to carry out its work.
 - d) Overseeing the branches and circuits of the Public Prosecution as well as its members and their work, in accordance with the law.
 - e) Reviewing matters relating to the Public Prosecution's work as well as any matter referred thereto by the Public Prosecutor.

f) Preparing the Public Prosecution's annual report which shall include the Board's views and proposals regarding the Public Prosecution's work progress as well as its observations regarding the laws and procedures applied thereby. The Public Prosecutor shall submit the same to the King with his views thereon".

- Amending Article 10 to read as follows:

"The Public Prosecutor shall be appointed by royal order at the rank of grade "Minister" from among those who, at least, meet the requirements of the position of Head of Investigation and Prosecution Circuits.

Appointment to other Public Prosecution positions as well as the transfer of Public Prosecution members to other agencies shall be pursuant to a royal order based on a decision by the Public Prosecution Board".

- Amending Article 13 to read as follows:

"In cases other than death, reaching the age of retirement, and failure to demonstrate competence during the probation period, the service of a Public Prosecution member shall be terminated by royal order based on a decision by the Public Prosecution Board".

- Amending Article 16 to read as follows:

"The head of an investigation and prosecution circuit or circuits may warn, verbally or in writing, the investigators of such circuit or circuits of any violation of their duties or the requirements of their positions after hearing their statements. In case of a written warning, the Public Prosecutor shall be provided with a copy thereof.

The investigator subject of the warning shall have the right to object thereto within 15 days from the date of notification thereof by requesting an investigation of the incident that led to the issuance of the warning. In such case, a committee shall be formed comprising the Public Prosecutor and a Deputy Head of Investigation and Prosecution Circuit "A" or comprising the Deputy Public Prosecutor and a Deputy Head of Investigation and Prosecution Circuit "B". Said committee may, after hearing the statements of the objecting investigator, assign any of its members the task of conducting an investigation if deemed necessary, uphold the warning, or consider the warning null and void; it shall notify the Public Prosecution Board of its decision. If the violation is repeated or if it continues after the committee upholds the warning, disciplinary action shall be initiated".

- Amending Article 17 to read as follows:

"The head of the inspection circuit, or his designee, shall initiate a disciplinary action pursuant to an order by the Public Prosecutor. Such action shall only be initiated based on an investigation conducted by a Public Prosecution member assigned by the Public Prosecution Board. The Public Prosecution member assigned to conduct the investigation shall be of a rank higher than that of the member under investigation or his senior with regards to service if they are of the same rank".

- Amending Article 26 to read as follows:

"Disciplinary Board decisions shall be submitted to the Public Prosecution Board for consideration. The penalty of termination of service shall be enforced pursuant to a royal order and the penalty of reprimand shall be enforced pursuant to a decision by the Public Prosecutor".

- Amending Article 27 to read as follows:

"Without prejudice to the provisions of this Law, the Public Prosecutor shall oversee the administrative and financial affairs of the Public Prosecution and shall enjoy the same powers as those of a minister regarding Public Prosecution employees and staff. He shall be the authority with respect to any communication made to ministries and other agencies in this regard".

- Repealing Articles 11 and 28.

February 16, 2025 (Sha'ban 17, 1446H)

Royal Decree No. M/180 provides for the following:

- Amending paragraph (1) of Article 4 to read as follows:

"1. A board named the Public Prosecution Board shall be formed and shall comprise the following:

- a) Public Prosecutor, Chairman.
- b) Deputy Public Prosecutor, Member and Vice-chairman.
- c) Seven Public Prosecution members of a rank not lower than Head of Investigation and Prosecution Circuit "A", Members.
- d) Two persons with relevant expertise, Members.

The Public Prosecutor shall nominate the members provided for in subparagraph (c), and appointment of the members provided for in subparagraphs (c) and (d) shall be pursuant to a royal order for a period of four renewable years. The remuneration and benefits of the members of the Public Prosecution Board shall be determined pursuant to a royal order".